"(1) Mr. Nanasami Rao was employed in Travancore on 24-3-04 ie when he was on privilege leave. It is doubtful if an officer on privilege leave can accept service under a foreign employer and from the date of expiry of such leave begin to contribute for his pension. Please see art: 760 of the British Service Regulations. The comptroller may be consulted on this point.

2. The question of Mr Nanasami Rao's pay when in foreign service should, I think be considered with reference to art: 389 and 390 M.S.R. There is no reference to this point in the correspondence

Letter No. Ref on C No. 1948, dated the 8th August 1904, from the Resident in Travancore and Cochin, to the Hon'ble the Resident in Mysore, Bangalore.

R.Nanaswamy Rao, of the Mysore service, now on six months' leave, was permitted by the Mysore Durbar to accept temporary employment in Travancore during the period of his leave. The Travancore Darbar have appointed him to be the Private Secretary of the Diwan of Travancore with effect from 24th March last. As his leave will shortly expire I have the honour to forward the request of the Travancore Darbar that the Mysore Darbar will be pleased to lend the services of R.Nanaswamy Rao to Travancore for a period of two years from September 14th 1904. The Travancore Darbar will be glad to pay any pensionary contribution which the Mysore Darbar may fix.
